Note from Jackie:

PLEASE BRING IN YOUR NEW MEMBERSHIP CARD FOR ME TO SEE !!

Put it in your wallet as soon as you get it. If everyone would bring it in January, it would be greatly appreciated. Many that were at the November and December meetings did not show me their card. January is the deadline!!

Anyone who has not already shown their 2010-2011 membership cards or does not show it at the January gathering will not be eligible for monies won. Don't let this be you!

Please! Do not remove recaps from desk. Fill them out and leave there. Whoever fills out the re-cap, be sure to total everything. No one should put their initials out to the side if your score is not totaled. Your splits should also be totaled and not circled. There are so many errors!! Some have questioned me if they think they should have placed but its errors that have made the change.

200 Club Results: There were 59 members (16 women & 43 men) that bowled 200 games this past year. Richard Hamaker and Austin McMahan both bowled seventeen 200 games and Richard Hamaker bowled the highest game of 269. Debbie Kirkland led the women with ten 200 games but Melanie Boozer had the highest bowled game of 266.

Three - in - a - row roll off:

The 2010 Ellie Deason Memorial Three - in - a - row roll off will be at the January meeting. Bowl as usual. Splits will be counted as usual and with them also being counted for those that re-qualified during 2010. Those competing for the roll - off are: Shirley Cody, Denise Blonstein, Bobby Heaton, Roger Moon, Sheree Poe, Patricia Jameson, and Annette Avalos.

Thank You:

A big thank you goes out to Pete Harvey for setting up our website. Go and check out what a great job Pete has done at : www.houstonbuzzardclub.com. Pete would like for the members to e-mail him any pictures, new or old – bowling, entertaining, or just plain fun at petehrvy@hotmail.com. The idea and the goals of the officers was not only that our website be informative, but also entertaining and fun. Give us your opinions and suggestions.

FUNNY PAGES AND INTERESTING FACTS

JOKE OF THE MONTH

The photographer for a national magazine was assigned to get photos of an enormous forest fire. Smoke at the scene was too thick to get any good shots, so he frantically called his home office to hire a plane.

"It will be waiting for you at the airport!" he was assured by his editor.

As soon as he got to the small, rural airport, sure enough, a plane was warming up near the runway. He jumped in with his equipment and yelled, "Let's go! Let's go!" The pilot swung the plane into the wind and soon they were in the air.

"Fly over the north side of the fire," said the photographer, "and make three or four low level passes."

"Why?" asked the pilot.

"Because I'm going to take pictures! I'm a photographer, and photographers take pictures!" said the photographer with great exasperation and impatience.

After a long pause the pilot said, "You mean you're not the instructor?"

ON THIS DATE

On Jan. 9, 1968, the Surveyor 7 space probe made a soft landing on the moon, marking the end of the American series of unmanned explorations of the lunar surface.

MORONS

The chef at a hotel in Switzerland lost a finger in a meat-cutting machine and submitted a claim to his insurance company. The company expecting negligence sent out one of its men to have a look for himself. He tried the machine and he also lost a finger. The chef's claim was approved.

FAMOUS QUOTES:

By three methods we may learn wisdom: First, by reflection, which is noblest; Second, by imitation, which is easiest; and third by experience, which is the bitterest. - Confucius

WOULD YOU BELIEVE!!!

TULSA, OKLA - The Oklahoma Supreme Court has ruled on a case that many legal experts believe clearly delineates the e-mail privacy rights of computer users in the workplace. Judge Stan Musing declared that employees have a right to expect that their employers will refrain from monitoring e-mail messages transmitted on company systems. The case went to court after programmer Augustus Lindsey's supervisor monitored his e-mail and intercepted a message from Lindsey to a colleague.

The message read: "That little randy kitten has been driving me wild. She's moaning and begging for it every minute. Last night I was afraid someone would hear, and we'd be thrown out of the building. But don't worry -- all is arranged. Wednesday she gets the knife". Lindsey's supervisor alerted authorities, suspecting that a crime was in the making. Lindsey was arrested on the spot and spent an uncomfortable night discussing the situation with the police. However, he was released in the morning, just in time to get his female cat to the vet for spaying. Lindsey sued his boss for invasion of privacy and sought punitive damages as well.

WEIRD BUT TRUE

Chris Browne, 54, a contestant in a New Zealand underwater spearfishing competition, managed to jab a 295-pound, 9-foot marlin. "It came back at me when I first speared it but I gave it quite an aggressive kick with one of my fins and it veered away," said Browne, who was diving without scuba equipment. It dragged him four kilometers out to sea, then took him on a tour of several islands at speeds up to 10 knots, sometimes diving as deep as 18 meters (59 feet). Browne managed to land the fish after 90 minutes, but he lost the competition since he only caught the one fish. (Reuters)

Trivia Answer:

Interestingly enough—watching TV burns fewer calories than a good night's rest; so sleep as much as you can at night!
