Note from Jackie:

PERTAINING TO ALL TEAM CAPTAINS:

The deadline to turn in your tournament applications will be at the June 6 meet. No exceptions!! I have to have them mailed no later than June 10. My time is limited now so it would be a big help to me if you could get them to me at the May meeting. ALSO since they want the 2009 – 2010 yearbook average (the book doesn't come out until late AUGUST 2010!) I would suggest that you get a standing sheet from your league, nearest the date near the end of your league. The secretary can tell you what week in May the averages are taken to be sent in to the Association for the yearbook. Use the standing sheet for that week to put with your application. If you turn it in early in May, you can always give me the standing sheet later. If you bowl at Del Mar, I'm there each Thursday from 11 AM – 3 PM. Ask them to put it in my folder. Your help with this would be very much appreciated. And, don't forget that two checks are needed. One for the whole team with the tournament application and one for the group on your team going to the dinner/dance. Make both out to the Houston Chapter Buzzard Club.

THANKS, Jackie

FUNNY PAGES AND INTERESTING FACTS

JOKE OF THE MONTH

The Mafia was looking for a new man to make weekly collections from all the private businesses that they were "protecting." Feeling the heat from the police force, they decide to use a deaf person for this job. If he were to get caught, he wouldn't be able to communicate to the police what he was doing. Well, on his first week, the deaf collector picks up over $40,000. He gets greedy, decides to keep the money and stashes it in a safe place. The Mafia soon realizes that their collection is late, and sends some of their hoods after the deaf collector. The hoods find the deaf collector and ask him where the money is. The deaf collector can't communicate with them, so the Mafia drags the guy to an interpreter. The Mafia hood says to the interpreter, "Ask him where the money is." The interpreter signs, "Where's the money?" The deaf man replies, "I don't know what you're talking about." The interpreter tells the hood, "He says he doesn't know what you're talking about." The hood pulls out a .38 and places it in the ear of the deaf collector. "Now ask him where the money is!" The interpreter signs, "Where is the money?" The deaf man replies, "The $40,000 is in a tree stump in Central Park." The interpreter says to the hood, "He says he still doesn't know what you're talking about, and doesn't think you have the guts to pull the trigger."

FAMOUS QUOTES:

John Wayne - "Most men hate to shop. That's why the men's department is usually on the first floor of a department store, two inches from the door."

ON THIS DATE

On May 2, 1865 - U.S. President Andrew Johnson offered $100,000 reward for the capture of Confederate President Jefferson Davis.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE!!!

Paula Oertel, on Medicare, has a brain tumor that had miraculously been in remission for nine years thanks to a type of interferon approved for multiple sclerosis but not for cancer. Medicare had been paying about $100,000 a year for the drug, but when Oertel relocated from one county in Wisconsin to another, 30 miles away, it triggered an automatic, full-scale review of her records, at which point officials realized that her drug was unauthorized and stopped paying. According to a March Milwaukee Journal Sentinel report, her doctors scrambled to find a drug on the "approved" list, but discovered neither a less expensive one nor one nearly as effective, and Oertel's tumor has returned.

WEIRD BUT TRUE

A policeman in Cunnamulla, Qld., Australia, was called to duty unexpectedly. He performed his duty at a hotel -- despite having drunk "at least" 18 "mid-strength" beers beforehand. When Senior Constable Adam Reedy was done with his task, he stopped at the hotel's bar and had two more drinks, then got into a fight with a woman who was also drinking at the bar. She knocked him unconscious when he tried to arrest her. "At this time the Queensland Police Service has not received any complaint about the matter," said a police spokesman. And why was he called to duty? Fellow officers needed him to conduct an alcohol breath test.

MORONS

John, 71, used wood and rope to make a traction device to ease his wife's neck pain. But applying traction to the neck takes a delicate touch. His do-it-yourself medical device turned out to be a gallows, as John found out when he tested it and hanged himself.
