Note From Jackie:

Winter Leagues will be starting by the time of our next gathering. This means that it is time to get your new sanction card. Make sure that your League Secretary gets them turned in as soon as possible. So, by November they should be arriving at your house. And I will be asking that you bring them in to show me as soon as possible. Lets get this done and over with by the December gathering.

Thanks,
Jackie

Congratulations to:

Sheree Poe and her doubles partner Mary Hutchinson for placing First in the State Women's tournament. Linda Donnelly placed 5th for her Division at the State Women's Tournament.

Sheree Poe also won one of the 2 raffles at the San Antonio Tournament – a Very nice looking (and heavy) Basket of Libations! Donna Castellese won the 2nd raffle, a very nice gold necklace and charm at the San Antonio Tournament.

FUNNY PAGES AND INTERESTING FACTS

JOKE OF THE MONTH

As reported in the Massachusetts Bar Association Lawyers Journal, the following are questions actually asked of witnesses by attorneys during trial, and in certain cases, the responses given by insightful witnesses:

"Now doctor, isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn't know about it until the next morning?"

"The youngest son, the twenty-year-old, how old is he?"

"Were you present when your picture was taken?"

"Were you alone or by yourself?"

"Was it you or your younger brother who was killed in the war?"

"Did he kill you?"

"How far apart were the vehicles at the time of the collision?"

"You were there until the time you left, is that true?"

"How many times have you committed suicide?"

Q: "So the date of conception [of the baby] was August 8th?"

A: "Yes."

Q: "And what were you doing at the time?"

Q: "She had three children, right?"

A: "Yes."

Q: "How many were boys?"

A: "None."

Q: "Were there any girls?"

Q: "You say the stairs went down to the basement?"

A: "Yes."

Q: "And these stairs, did they go up also?"

Q: "Mr. Slatery, you went on a rather elaborate honeymoon, didn't you?"

A: "I went to Europe, Sir."

Q: "And you took your new wife?"

Q: "How was your first marriage terminated?"

A: "By death."

Q: "And by whose death was it terminated?"

Q: "Can you describe the individual?"

A: "He was about medium height and had a beard."

Q: "Was this a male, or a female?"

Q: "Is your appearance here this morning in answer to a deposition notice which I sent you your attorney?"

A: "No, this is how I dress when I go to work."

Q: "Doctor, how many autopsies have you performed on dead people?"

A: "All my autopsies are performed on dead people."

Q: "Do you recall the time that you examined the body?"

A: "The autopsy started around 8:30 pm."

Q: "And Mr. Dennington was dead at the time?"

A: "No, he was sitting on the table wondering why I was doing an autopsy."

Q: "You were shot in the fracas?"

A: "No, I was shot midway between the fracas and the navel."

Q: "Are you qualified to give a urine sample?"

A: "I have been since early childhood."

Q: "Doctor, before you performed the autopsy, did you check for a pulse?"

A: "No."

A: "Did you check to breathing?"

A: "No."

Q: "So, then it is possible that the patient was alive when you began the autopsy?"

A: "No."

Q: "How can you be so sure, Doctor?"

A: "Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar."

Q: "But could the patient have been alive nevertheless?"

A: "It is possible that he could have been alive and practicing law somewhere."

ON THIS DATE

On September 11, 1940 - Near Montignac, France, a collection of prehistoric cave paintings are discovered by four teenagers who stumbled upon the ancient artwork after following their dog down a narrow entrance into a cavern. The 15,000- to 17,000-year-old paintings, consisting mostly of animal representations, are among the finest examples of art from the Upper Paleolithic period.
